Built by Redpoint and Designed by award winning Spanish architect Teodoro Cabrilla this multi-levelled grand residence possesses the coveted combination of stunning vistas and unbeatable location.

Elegant and spacious, the villa sits on the south, south-west facing side of an intricate, elevated landscape in this highly acclaimed resort in southern Spain.

Central to the design is an inspiring three-tree atrium - an innovative glass facade that encapsulates the essence of life, allowing you to be bathed in light and nature every minute of every day.

The dramatic proportion and scale make the views as grand as the spaces from which they are enjoyed at every level.

The timeless style that is expressed in the sophisticated lines of the architecture merge seamlessly with the panoramic backdrop.

This luxury contemporary design symbolizes the utmost quality in fusion with the ecologically aware and creative high-end luxury residential living.
